OUR WAILUKU LETTER.

Deputy Sheriff W. G. Scott has tendered his resignation to take effect at the end of this month. During his term nothing against him can be shown and no one will ever dare to manufacture stories against him either in his official capacity or otherwise. We have always found in him a good officer and one who disregarded favoritism, and taking it all in all, no better person could be found. We regret to lose him, and our aloha pimehana and good wishes will always be with him and his wife, who will be missed by her many friends in Wailuku nei.

Who is to be the Deputy Sheriff? is the talk of the town, and many a new hat bet has been made. There are more applicants and more aspirants for the vacancy than was ever dreamt of and most surprising to all, is the check that the few carpet-baggers have in making applications or pretensions for it through a third party. The people, the citizens and taxpayers of Wailuku do not wish and can never bear to see a new coon, a person who only came here yesterday, get the position. Nor do they like the idea of having a man, sent from Honolulu. We believe in home rule, and that the vacancy should be first offered to the other deputies, such as Billy King of Makawao, A. N. Hayselden of Lahaina, or Bob Lindsey of Hana, and then to the other Mauians; but never to a "man of yesterday" or to one from the other islands. Sheriff Baldwin will be slow but sure in picking his deputy, and he fully knows the wish of the people.

Miss Margaret Nape leaves to-day for Honolulu, and from thence takes the Moana for the States where, it is hoped, she will recuperate and be again in our midst in the best of health and spirits. She will visit her many friends there and will be away for six months making the best she can within the time.

W. O. Smith and family are visiting relatives at Hamakua. They arrived last night by the W. G. Hall and drove right up.

All the Maui boys who attended school at Honolulu returned last Tuesday, some for Hana, Makawao, and here.

Mrs. McKay, our post mistress, returned from the Coast, after an absence of a few months, looking a little more healthy than before she left.

The Kahului R. R. Co. will not work on Monday and Tuesday of the coming week. This extra day is owing to the fact that on the 11th of June the company had to work and so could not make it a holiday for their men.

A reward for the arrest of one Ah Fook (Chinaman) for escaping from prison is being posted all around town. The fellow got away on the opening day of the last jury term.

All Hawaiians regretted to learn of the death of Queen Kapiolani, and all are anxiously waiting to know whether or not she has made any provision for her people as the other alii did.

Wailuku, Maui, July 1, 1899.

Anchored.

Sailors and landlubbers, soldiers and civilians flock to the Anchor Saloon, because they are well treated in the cozy room of that establishment and served with first class beer high grade liquors and the favorite drink Canadian Malt Whiskey.

Kentucky's famous Jesse Moore Whiskey, unequalled for its purity and excellence. On sale at any of the saloons and at Lovejoy & Co., distributing agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Fred. Harrison the proprietor of the Hawaiian Marble Works, is ready to supply his patrons and friends with tomb stones suitable to all tastes, requirements and purples. His office is in the new buildings next to the Occidental on the corner of Alakea and King street.

News From Leper Settlement.

ED. THE INDEPENDENT:

Dear Sir:—Kindly permit the following news item in the column of your paper.

The Kalaupapa school children had a concert on the 11th June and realized the amount over $30. The Beritania Hall was crowded with parents and friends of the children, the much pleased with all the doings. The 23d inst., the examination day of the school, was at the Y. M. C. A. hall permitted by the Board of Trustees and C. E. E. The children showed their mark in all their lessons, which were said in English and translated in native by the children, this has pleased the parents so much and many of the visitors. Thomas K. Nathaniel, the teacher, is to be congratulated by all, for the success of the school children. The wish of the parents and all is that he may be continued in his good office by the board. After the examination a good luau was given to the children. Parents and all who came are summed up by your writer to about two hundred and over.

Taro planting in Waikolu. The disagreements between Mr. A. K. Hutchison and the Board of Health through its official here have been settled by the unjust resolution of the Board of Health. The Board of Health is planting taro, it has now somewhere between 50 or 60 ac planted and still breaking up moreland, by the kokuas who are forced to work if they like it or not, or leave the settlement, while their poor blind and sick wives lay sick at home is this what they came here for? I hope dear editor you will enlighten the public on this koku matter.
